Nevada Quarter Media Day at the United States Mint at Denver

Wild horses will appear inside the United States Mint at Denver for the first time as the new Nevada Quarter is ceremonially struck on January 5, 2006 at 10 a.m. The Nevada quarter-dollar depicts a trio of wild stallions, the snow-capped mountains and the sun, bordered by sagebrush and a banner that reads "The Silver State." The coin also bears the inscriptions "Nevada" and "1864." Nevada was admitted into the Union on October 31, 1864, becoming our Nation's 36th state. The Nevada quarter is the first to be released by the United States Mint in 2006, and the 36th in the 50 State Quarters® Program.

Reporters, cameras and microphones are invited to photograph and record the new Nevada quarter-dollar being minted in preparation for the official quarter launch in Carson City, Nevada on January 31, 2006. Credentialed members of the press are asked to arrive by 9:30 a.m. for check-in with the United States Mint Police.
